Pyg Track

QUICK FACT	DETAIL
Start / finish	Pen y Pass Car Park
Return distance	11 km (7 miles)
Typical duration	6 hours
Ascent	895 metres
Official grade	Hard/Strenuous
Best suited to	Experienced countryside walkers comfortable on steep, rocky ground

Route Overview

The Pyg Track is relatively short in distance but steep, rocky and demanding. It offers dramatic views towards Llyn Llydaw and Glaslyn and is one of the best-known mountain paths in Eryri.

Pyg Track topographic route map. Start is marked by a circle; the summit is marked by a triangle. Not a substitute for a detailed navigation map.

Ascent-only elevation profile from trailhead to summit (5.1 km along the supplied GPX track). Elevations are terrain-model estimates and may differ from official total-ascent figures.